AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

The following affirmative defenses apply to each and every paragraph of the Complaint as if fully set forth in response thereto.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, the Complaint, in whole or in part, fails to state a claim(s) upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, Plaintiff's damages, if any, and which are specifically denied, are barred or reduced to the extent Plaintiff has failed to mitigate said damages.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, Defendant Archuleta's alleged actions in this matter do not rise to the level of any constitutional or statutory deprivation or violation.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, at all times material to this lawsuit, Defendant Archuleta did not act with deliberate indifference to Plaintiff's rights or welfare.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, any purported damages by Plaintiff are the result of his own negligence, misconduct, and/or conduct, acts or omissions, which conduct either bars Plaintiff's claims or reduces their claims in an amount to be determined at trial.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, and as may be borne out by discovery, some or all of Plaintiff's alleged damages, which are specifically denied, are or may be the result of the acts or omissions of parties other than Defendant Archuleta, thereby barring or reducing recovery against Defendant Archuleta.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, as may be borne out by discovery, the acts or omissions of parties other than Defendant Archuleta constitute or may constitute the sole proximate cause of the injuries and damages, if any and which are specifically denied, alleged by Plaintiff.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, and as may be borne out by discovery, Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of consent, waiver, estoppel and/or unclean hands.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, Defendant Archuleta, as part of "the state and its political subdivisions," is or may be exempt from pre-judgment and post-judgment interest "except as otherwise provided by statute or common law." See NMSA § 56-8-4(D).

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, Plaintiff's claims for damages, interest and attorney's fees under state law are barred or limited by the provisions of the New Mexico Tort Claims Act.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, Defendant Archuleta is or may be entitled to qualified and/or absolute immunity.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, to the extent Plaintiff seeks punitive damages against Defendant Archuleta in his individual capacity, none of the acts or failures to act by Defendant Archuleta, which are specifically denied, state or substantiate any claim or entitlement to punitive damages.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, to the extent Plaintiff seeks punitive damages against Defendant Archuleta, Plaintiff is not entitled to any award of punitive damages and/or to any excessive award of punitive damages under the United States Constitution and the New Mexico Constitution.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a separate and alternative defense, and as may be borne out by discovery, Defendant Archuleta did not personally participate in some or all of the factual issues and conduct alleged in the Complaint. See Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1248 (2009) (“[b]ecause vicarious liability is inapplicable to Bivens and § 1983 suits, a plaintiff must plead each government-official defendant, through the official's own individual actions, has violated the Constitution."").

As a separate and alternative defense, and as may be borne out by discovery, some or all of Plaintiff's claims are or may be barred by the applicable statute(s) of limitation and/or administrative deadlines.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendant Archuleta requests the Court dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint with prejudice, that Plaintiff take nothing, that Defendant Archuleta be awarded his costs and fees as may be allowed by law, and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
